3-Year-Old Pacing Colts Compete in Second Leg of Buckeye Stallion Series

Eldorado Scioto Downs hosted the 2nd leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for the 3-year-old pacing colts Friday, June 8th. Some fast colts filled the card with six races throughout the evening. Besides speed, two colts brought their 2018 earnings to over $20,000 in this leg.

Yankee Osborne in Race 3 was the first Buckeye Stallion Series race winner of the evening coming to the wire in 1:54.1 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. in the sulky, bringing his 2018 earnings to $23,600. The Yankee Cruiser colt is trained by Eric Hamlet for owner Jerome T Osborne Estate. Following his lead in 2nd was Cg's Boy Toy with Jeremy Smith, trained and owned by Roger Hughes Jr. Cg's Boy Toy is a Powerful Toy colt.

Race 5 saw Modern Rock As, a Pet Rock colt, make it to the winner's circle, driven by Chris Page with Drew The Dragon in a close 2nd, both with time 1:54.2. Modern Rock As is trained by Anette Lorentzon, owned by ACL Stuteri AB. Kimberly Dailey trains and owns Drew The Dragon, along with owners Kevin Snyder and Shane Hines.

Panimal Kingdom and Jeff Sutton lead the way in Race 7 with a time of 1:53.3. The No Pan Intended colt is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., who also owns him along with Peter Pan Stables, Inc. Close behind was Harambe Deo with Dan Noble, trained by Chris McGuire and owned by Deo Volente Farms LLC and Howard Taylor.

The Dragon Again colt Dancin Dragon took the win in the 10th race with Jason Brewer in the sulky coming home in 1:54.2. Dancin Dragon is trained by Jim Arledge, Jr. for owners James Russell Arledge and Mark Marroletti. 2nd place was Oberlin. Oberlin was driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr, trained by Timothy Lane and owned by Devine Line Racing Stable and Sandra McDavid.

Goingtocalifornia decided he was going to the winner's circle in the 11th with Chris Page. Brian Brown trains this Pet Rock colt, owned by Country Club Acres Inc., L & H Management Services and Richard Lombardo. He finished in 1:53.4 and brought his 2018 earnings to $21,215. Johnny Chip and Kyle Ater were close behind in 2nd place. Johnny Chip is a Big Bad John colt, trained by Dan Ater for owner Carol Jean Noble.

The final Buckeye Stallion Series race of the evening was won by Rock On Creek. Chris Page brought trainer Brian Brown his 2nd win of the evening with another Pet Rock colt as the pair finished in 1:54.2 for the owner trio Debbie Bird, Richard Lombardo and Carl Atley. Wild Eyed Yankee was close behind with Dan Noble in the sulky. Wild Eyed Yankee, a Yankee Cruiser colt, is trained by Tyler Bates and owned by Edwin Harwood.

Eldorado Scioto Downs will host the 3-year-old trotting fillies on Tuesday, June 12th.
